ANNOUNCEMENTS

- For today's Feast of Christ the King, following Mass, instead of the procession, we will have Benediction with the Act of Consecration of the Human Race to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.
- This Saturday, October 31st, is the Vigil of All Saints. A fast and partial abstinence obliged on this day.
- The Feast of All Saints, November 1st, falls on next Sunday. As is customary at Sacred Heart, we will gather downstairs for a potluck and a seasonal celebration, during which children may dress as saints. (Parents, please have your children change into their costumes after Mass.) The sign-up sheet for the potluck is downstairs. We will celebrate the saints with food from their homelands. If able, choose a country on the sign-up sheet downstairs and bring a dish to share.
 - Note that Daylight Savings time ends next Sunday.
- The RCI's Third Quarter Newsletter and MHT's October Newsletter are available at the entrances.

- The Sisters are taking orders for their 18th annual Thanksgiving Pie Sale now through Wednesday, November 18th. Order forms are available in the vestibules and the bookstore.
- All, especially visitors, are welcome to refreshments downstairs after Mass.

COLLECTION

Last Week (October 18–24): $4,580.00

- Percent change from previous week: Up 14%
- Percent change from average weekly collection: Up 31%

Please make checks payable to “Sacred Heart Church.”

May God reward your generosity.

A NOTE TO NEWCOMERS

Welcome to the traditional Latin Mass, and to the unchanged Catholic Faith. The priests and parishioners of Sacred Heart Church reject the changes of Vatican II. They want to preserve the Roman Catholic Faith by maintaining everything which was taught and done by the Church prior to Vatican II. In order to receive the sacraments here, it is therefore necessary that you attend exclusively the traditional Latin Mass, and avoid the New Mass, the reformed sacraments, as well as any Masses which are offered in union with the Vatican II hierarchy. Those wishing to receive the Sacraments here regularly are kindly asked to speak with the priest beforehand regarding their sacramental situation.

DRESS CODE

For Men: Jacket and tie on Sundays and holy days of obligation. No earrings. No shorts.

For Women: A dress or skirt is required; no pants or shorts. The skirt must at least cover the knee—even while sitting—and should not be tight or otherwise revealing in any way. Immodest slits are forbidden. Clothing should be loose and not formfitting. A head covering is also required. See-through blouses are forbidden, as well as clothing which is low-cut either in front or in back.

For Everyone: No sneakers, sandals, clogs, flip-flops, or jeans, even on weekdays. No piercings. Clothing with writing on it (e.g., sweatshirts or jackets) is also forbidden. Anyone in tight, provocative, or otherwise revealing attire will not be permitted to enter the church.

DOCTRINAL NOTICE

Anyone who adheres to the doctrines of Fr. Feeney is barred from receiving the sacraments in this church. In the 1940s, Fr. Leonard Feeney, S.J., promoted the heresy that there was no such thing as baptism of blood or baptism of desire. Fr. Feeney's teaching is contrary to the universal ordinary magisterium of the Catholic Church. It was condemned in 1949 by the Holy Office. All Catholics are bound under pain of mortal sin to give assent to the teachings of the Holy Office. A number of lay Catholics mistakenly adhere to this heresy, falsely thinking that it is the teaching of the Catholic Church.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Baptisms are by appointment. Godparents must be practicing Catholics in good standing who reject the changes of Vatican II. If you are contemplating Matrimony, please contact the priest before making any other arrangements, e.g., purchase of gowns or rental of halls. When making arrangements for funerals, please contact the priest before contacting the funeral director.

SAINT'S QUOTE

This is the king of whom we are members, for Christ is our king. He is both our head and our King. On him you have conferred days upon days, O God: not merely the days of this present age, which will come to an end, but over and above them further days that will never end. Another psalm declares, I will dwell in the Lord's house through length of days (Ps 22(23):6). Why does it say, Through length of days? Surely because the days of our present life are so short. Anything that comes to an end is short, but the life of our king spans days upon further days. Not only does Christ reign in his Church during the fleeting days of this present world, but the saints will reign with him through days that will know no end.

— St. Augustine

Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, have mercy on us.
